The policy will be formally reviewed on:May 2022

THE HAWTHORNS PRIMARY SCHOOL

COMPLAINTS POLICY

Legal context

From September 2003 governing bodies of all maintained schools and nursery schools in England are required, under Section 29 of the Education Act 2002, to have in place a clear and well communicated procedure to deal with complaints.

The School Standards and Framework Act 1998 provided an additional function of the governing body to establish and publish procedures for dealing with complaints relating to the school, other than those covered by legislation and formal procedures elsewhere.

Circumstances under which this procedure should not be used- See end of policy. Page 3 and 4

Who is allowed to complain? This policy may be used by anyone who has a concern or complaint about any aspect of the school. In the main this will mean the parents and carers of the school's pupils, but may include parents and carers of pupils who are no longer at the school, neighbours of the school, or any other members of the local community. Every effort will be made to resolve all complaints received. Complaints will always be investigated so that the school can ensure that all statutory duties are being met and if not address the issues raised and learn from them- for example child protection issues may only come to light after the pupil has left the school.

Aims and objectives of the policy

This complaints policy aims to:

- Encourage the resolution of problems by informal means wherever possible;
- Ensure that concerns are dealt with quickly, fully and fairly and within clearly defined time limits;
- Provide effective responses and appropriate redress;
- Maintain good working relationships between all people involved with the school.

Circumstances under which stages of the procedure should be missed out

There are 3 stages outlined in the complaints procedure:

Stage 1 Referral to Headteacher

Stage 2 Complaint referred to Chair of Governors

Stage 3 Review by governing body complaints panel

This policy sets out the most suitable and effective process for dealing with the majority of complaints which are not covered by alternative procedures (see page 3 and 4). In most cases any concern or complaint, regardless of whose attention it is initially brought to, should be discussed informally before being escalated to any of the following formal stages.

In some cases, it may be deemed inappropriate for individuals to discuss their concerns informally. In such cases, complainants may be directed to contact the Headteacher directly (i.e. begin at stage 1). Complainants may choose to contact the Headteacher directly of their own accord. In these cases, it will be at the discretion of the Headteacher as to whether or not it is appropriate for the complainant to discuss the matter informally before invoking the formal complaints procedure at Stage 1.

In all cases where the complaint concerns the school's Headteacher directly, stage 1 will be missed out and the formal complaints procedure will begin at stage 2.

If and when complaints about the school are brought to the attention of Wokingham Borough Council, complainants will be advised to contact the school and to follow the procedures set out in the school's complaints policy.

Monitoring complaints

At all formal stages of the complaints procedure, the following information should be recorded:

- The name of the complainant;
- The date and time at which complaint was made;
- The details of the complaint;
- The desired outcome of the complainant;
- How the complaint is investigated (including written records of interviews held);
- Results and conclusions of investigations;
- Any action taken;
- The complainant's response (satisfaction or further pursuit of complaint).

The school may choose to appoint a member of staff as a 'complaints co-ordinator'. When this is the case, this individual will have the responsibility for the operation and management of the school complaints policy and will be responsible for monitoring complaints. Records should be retained within school for 6 years from the date of resolution and can then be destroyed.

Upholding or not upholding complaints

At each stage of the complaints procedure, the conclusion will be either:

- 1 That the complaint is upheld (in part or in full) and, where appropriate, some form of action is taken.

It may be appropriate to offer one or more of the following:

- an apology;
- an explanation;
- an admission that the situation could have been handled differently or better;
- an assurance that the event complained of will not recur;
- an explanation of the steps that have been taken to ensure that it will not happen again;
- an undertaking to review school policies in light of the complaint.

Or

- 2 That the complaint is not upheld and reasons for this are clearly given.

The complainant may either choose to take no further action or will be advised of how to take the complaint to the next relevant stage of the complaints policy.

Publicity and communication

There is a legal requirement for schools to publicise their complaints procedures. This policy will be included on the school's website or available through the school office. Schools may make reference to the complaints policy in other school documentation.

Confidentiality

All conversations and correspondence will be treated confidentially. Personal information will only be shared between staff and governors on a 'need to know' basis. Confidentiality will be maintained within the Governing Body to ensure sufficient governors have no prior knowledge of the complaint to enable a complaints panel to be convened, if required, at stage 3.

The school processes any personal data collected during the complaints process in accordance with its data protection policy. Further details can be found in the Privacy Notice on the school's website.

Accompaniment

It is an expectation that equal respect will be granted to each person involved within the process and that differences between people will be respected and understood. This includes the complainant's right to be accompanied by a friend or relative at discussions and hearings and/or to submit formal complaints which have been written by another individual on their behalf.

Support offered by Wokingham Borough Council

Wokingham Borough Council Children's Services offer advice and guidance to Headteachers and governing bodies who request this additional support when dealing with a complaint.

It is the responsibility of the Local Authority to ensure that schools are implementing their agreed policies. It is not the role of the LA to become involved in setting policy or to intervene in individual cases, but to ensure that agreed policies have been applied appropriately. The responsibility for managing complaints lies with the governing body.

Where there is a serious allegation against the Headteacher, it is recommended that the governing body seek advice from Governor Services at Wokingham Borough Council from the outset.

Anonymous complaints

We will not normally investigate anonymous complaints. However, the Headteacher or Chair of Governors, if appropriate, will determine whether the complaint warrants an investigation.

Time scales

You must raise the complaint within three months of the incident or, where a series of associated incidents have occurred, within three months of the last of these incidents. We will consider complaints made outside of this time frame if exceptional circumstances apply.

Complaints received outside of term time

We will consider complaints made outside of term time to have been received on the first school day after the holiday period.

Time between stages

After each stage, the complainant and the individual who is dealing with their complaint at that time should allow 15 school days to decide an appropriate time limit within which the next stage should be accessed, if at all. If the complaint is not submitted to the next stage within this agreed time limit it should be considered as closed.

Changes to time limits and deadlines

In general, the time limits and deadlines contained within this policy should be adhered to by the school. However, in certain circumstances it may be inappropriate or impractical, for example, if an investigation cannot be conducted due to school holidays or illness.

Where a complaint leads to criminal proceedings this will always be the case.

If and when it becomes necessary to alter the time limits and deadlines set out within this policy, the complainant should be told and given an explanation as to why this has been the case.

Circumstances under which this procedure should not be used-

This guidance does not refer to areas where Wokingham Borough Council (WBC), as the Local Authority (LA), has the lead role or for which separate appeal arrangements are provided. These include:

- Pupil admissions
- Pupil exclusions
- Statutory Assessment of Special Educational Needs

Issues related to child protection, criminal investigations and employee grievances must also all be dealt with separately from this policy.

This complaints policy is distinct from formal staff disciplinary proceedings and this should be made clear to all concerned. There may be occasions where a complaint gives rise to disciplinary procedures which put the complaints process on hold. If and when this occurs, the complainant should be informed. Any non-disciplinary aspects of the complaint should continue to be dealt with through the usual complaints procedures.

This policy does not cover complaints made against Wokingham Borough Council. Any complaint of this sort should be dealt with in accordance with the Council's 'Corporate Complaints Procedure'.

PROCEDURES FOR HANDLING COMPLAINTS

Informal discussion

Introduction

The vast majority of concerns can be dealt with informally. There are many occasions where concerns are resolved straight away without the need to submit a formal complaint. Indeed, many concerns raised at this level might not be classified as complaints.

Who to speak to informally

Individuals may decide to raise their concerns with a member of school administrative staff, class teacher, senior teacher, governor or Headteacher depending on their wishes and the type of issues they want to discuss.

Monitoring

It is not necessary to record or monitor concerns at this level.

Time scales

There are no specific time scales for dealing with concerns at this stage. However, as at all stages, issues should be considered and dealt with as quickly and effectively as possible.

Response

The individual who raised the issue should be informed of any action to be taken to resolve the issue. If appropriate, this might be confirmed in writing.

Options for complainant

If the individual is dissatisfied with the response they have been given and would like to take their concerns further, they should be referred to the school's complaints procedure.

A leaflet has been written to provide parents a summary of the process for handling complaints. Appendix 1.

STAGE 1: Referral to the Headteacher

Introduction

This is the first stage of the formal complaints process and, as a result, all communications between parties need to be carefully recorded and monitored as set out in the 'monitoring complaints' section of this document.

When a complaint is made directly against the school's Headteacher, stage 1 is not required and the formal procedure begins at stage 2.

Submitting a formal complaint

By this stage it must be clear that the concern is a definite complaint which will be dealt with according to this policy and should be formally submitted in writing via email telephone etc to the Headteacher.

Acknowledgement and time scales

The Headteacher should formally acknowledge the complaint within 3 school days of receiving it and begin an investigation.

The investigation

The Headteacher will need to investigate the complaint and review any relevant documentation and information. If necessary, the Headteacher will take statements from those involved.

Response

The Headteacher will provide the complainant with a full written response within 10 school days of acknowledging it. This response will determine whether or not the complaint has been upheld, the reasons why, and what action (if any) will be taken. The response will provide details of how to move on to the next stage, if the complainant is not satisfied.

STAGE 2: Complaint referred to the Chair of Governors or Vice Chair, if more appropriate

Introduction

Upon receiving a formally submitted complaint at this stage the Chair of governors or his/her nominee will seek to resolve the issue with the complainant by other means without the need for a complaints committee review at stage 3

When a complaint is made directly against the school's Headteacher, stage 1 is not required and the formal procedure begins at stage 2.

Submitting a formal complaint

The complainant must submit a written request to the Chair of governors who will investigate the complaint or arrange for his/her nominee to investigate it.

Acknowledgement and time scales

The Chair of Governors or his/her nominee should formally acknowledge the complaint within 3 school days of receiving it and begin an investigation.

The investigation

The Chair of Governors or his/her nominee will need to investigate the complaint and review any relevant documentation and information. If necessary, the Chair of Governors or his/her nominee will take statements from those involved.

Response

The Chair of Governors or his/her nominee will provide the complainant with a full written response within 10 school days of acknowledging it. This response will determine whether or not the complaint has been upheld, the reasons why, and what action (if any) will be taken. The response will provide details of how to move on to the next stage, if the complainant is not satisfied.

Complaint against the Chair and/or Vice-Chair of Governors or governing body

If the complaint is about the Chair and/or Vice-Chair of Governors, or the governing body as whole, the complainant should put the complaint in writing (marked Private and Confidential) to the Clerk to Governors and this will either be investigated by an independent person or be considered under Stage 3 (using an independent panel of governors). This will be agreed in conjunction with the complainant.

STAGE 3: Review by Governing Body Complaints Panel

Introduction

If the complainant remains unsatisfied following an investigation by the Chair of Governors they can ask for their complaint to be referred to a governor complaints panel.

The complaints panel will be clerked by a member of the school staff, the clerk to the governing body or another governor.

The Committee

The panel will generally consist of three governors who have not previously been involved with dealing with the complaint. If the Governing Body is unable to find 3 governors without prior involvement they can contact WBC Governors Services to assist in finding independent governors to sit on the panel. The panel should elect its own chair.

If required, WBC will offer support and guidance to the clerk, the Chair of governors and/or the members of the complaints panel on procedural issues but will not play any part in reviewing the details of the complaint itself which is the responsibility alone of the complaints panel.

Acknowledgement and time scales

The Chair of Governors should acknowledge receipt of the complainant's letter within 3 school days. This letter will inform them that their complaint will be heard by a complaints panel within 15 school days.

Governor Complaints Panel Arrangements

The Chair of Governors will contact the clerk and ask them to begin making preparatory arrangements.

The Clerk will write to the complainant to inform them of the date of the meeting. They will aim to convene a meeting within 15 school days of receipt of the Stage 2 request. If this is not possible, the Clerk will provide an anticipated date and keep the complainant informed.

If the complainant rejects the offer of three proposed dates, without good reason, the Clerk will decide when to hold the meeting. It will then proceed in the complainant's absence on the basis of written submissions from both parties.

The clerk should then formally write to the complainant, the Headteacher and any other relevant staff or witnesses and inform them:

- Of the date, time and venue of the hearing;
- How it will be conducted;
- Request for any supporting documentation by either the complainant or the school which must be returned to the Clerk no later than 5 school days before the hearing takes place; this should include any request from supporting witnesses or representatives to attend with either party.
- Of the rights of accompaniment as outlined in this document.

The clerk will ensure that all parties receive all relevant documents at least 3 school days before the date of the hearing so as to allow individuals to familiarise themselves with them.

Governors Complaints Panel Meeting

The Chair should allow each party involved to explain their understanding or interpretation of events and for the Panel to question them for further clarification. Complainants do not have to attend the Panel meeting if they would prefer not to, and all written evidence will be considered.

Ultimately, the chair of the meeting has control over its proceedings.

The committee will also not review any new complaints at this stage or consider evidence unrelated to the initial complaint to be included. New complaints must be dealt with from Stage 1 of the procedure.

The meeting will be held in private. Electronic recordings of meetings or conversations are not normally permitted unless a complainant's own disability or special needs require it. Prior knowledge and consent of all parties attending must be sought before meetings or conversations take place. Consent will be recorded in any minutes taken.

After the Panel meeting

The panel will then consider the complaint and all the evidence presented and:

Reach a majority decision;

- Uphold the complaint in whole or in part
- Dismiss the complaint in whole or in part

If the complaint is upheld in whole or in part, the committee will:

- decide or recommend upon the appropriate action (if any) to be taken;
- where appropriate, suggest changes to, or request a review of, the school's systems or procedures to ensure that problems of a similar nature do not happen again.

This information will be included in letters to both the Headteacher and the complainant. See Governors Complaints Panel Guidance notes for more detail.

Options for complainant

This is the end of the schools' complaints process. If the complainant is not satisfied they can contact the Secretary of State or Ofsted.

The Secretary of State has the power to consider complaints that the governing body has acted unreasonably in the discharge of any of its statutory duties. The complainant can refer their complaint to the Department for Education online at: www.education.gov.uk/contactus by telephone on 0370 000 2288 or by writing to: Department for Education, Piccadilly Gate, Store Street, Manchester M1 2WD.

The Chief Inspector (Ofsted) has the power to investigate complaints about the school as a whole. (Standards of education, welfare of pupils and school management). Ofsted will not normally investigate cases to do with individual pupils.

Parents may seek advice from the Department for Education at <https://www.gov.uk/complain-about-school/state-schools> or from the Advisory Centre for Education at www.ace-ed.org.uk or on their helpline which is available on Monday - Thursday 10am -1pm on 0808 800 5793

Complaints about academies

Academies operate independently of local authorities. If you have a complaint about an academy which you have been unable to resolve, you should contact the Education, Funding and Skills Agency <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/complain-about-an-academy/complain-about-an-academy>

GOVERNOR COMPLAINTS PANEL GUIDANCE NOTES

1 Terms of Reference

The panel must be convened according to the complaints procedure published by the school as part of their complaints policy. All parties should have received a copy of the procedures.

2 Composition

The panel must consist of three governors previously unconnected with the case. This would usually exclude the Chair of Governors if he/she has had prior involvement

The Chair of the panel is agreed by the other members of the panel.

The meeting must be minuted by a nominated clerk who is usually the clerk to the governing body.

The minutes must be an accurate representation of what happens at the meeting. The minutes are confidential.

3 Chair's Introduction

- Welcome and introduce everyone in the room and their role in the proceedings. Those present will be the panel members, the clerk, the Headteacher (or the person representing the school), the complainant (both parties are entitled to be accompanied by a friend or relative)
- Witnesses in support of either the school or the complainant should wait outside the room until called.
- Explain the reason for the panel being held – to offer a fresh and fair look at the complaint from stage 2 as defined in the complaints procedures.
- Explain that the panel cannot consider new complaints at this stage.
- Explain the structure of the meeting.
- Explain that the panel will deliberate separately, in private, after the meeting and their conclusions will be sent out to all parties within 5 school days.
- Ensure that everyone has a copy of the papers including a copy of the complaints procedures.
- Check that everyone understands all of the above.

The Chair must ensure that:

- There is a clear written statement of the complaint which is the same as the complaint previously investigated. It may be appropriate to clarify if any aspects of the complaint fall outside the remit of the panel.
- There is a clear statement of the outcomes desired.

4 Structure of the Meeting

- a The complainant will be given the opportunity to explain their complaint.

- b The panel and the Headteacher (or person representing the school) will be allowed to ask the complainant questions.
- c The Headteacher (or person representing the school), will be given the opportunity to present the school's response, interpretation or view about the complaint.
- d The panel and the complainant will be allowed to ask the Headteacher (or person representing the school) questions.
- e At the panel's discretion, witnesses may be called and heard in support of either party's representations, and if so may be questioned by the panel and either party.
- f The complainant will be given the opportunity to make a final statement.
- g The Headteacher (or person representing the school) will be given the opportunity to make a final statement.
- h The Chair will confirm with both parties that they have had the opportunity to put their case.
- i The Chair will thank all for attending and explain that the panel will deliberate separately in private and a letter setting out the panel's conclusions will be sent out within 5 school days.

5 Deliberation and Conclusion

The main points of the complaint must all be addressed.

- For each point, the panel need to explain their findings based on fact where possible.
- The panel need to consider the outcomes requested and agree or disagree giving reasons.
- The panel can make recommendations to either the Headteacher or governing body.
- The concluding letter must be signed by the Chair of the panel.
- It will be sent out promptly and within 5 schools days of the meeting.
- The letter should indicate that this is the final stage of the schools complaints procedure. Where relevant, it should refer the complaint to other available avenues if dissatisfied with the outcome.

Management of this policy

This policy is a statutory requirement by law and will be reviewed annually.

How you can complain

We care about what you think

At school we make many decisions every day. We try hard to do best for all our pupils. Your views help us plan for the future. We like to know when things are going well. We also want parents to tell us about their worries, concerns or complaints as soon as possible. It is much easier for us to sort out a recent problem than something that happened some time ago.

If you are unhappy with the way your child is being treated, or any of our actions or lack of action, please feel able to tell us your concern. We know it can be difficult to question what a school is doing, but if you do not tell us what is worrying you, we cannot explain our actions or put things right. Our support and respect for you and your child will not lessen in any way.

Our promise to you

We will deal with your concern or complaint honestly, politely and in confidence.

It will be looked into thoroughly, fairly and as quickly as possible.

We will keep you up to date with what we are doing.

We will apologise if we have made a mistake.

We will tell you what we are going to do to put things right.

What to do first

If you have a concern about anything we do you can tell us in person, by telephone, or in writing. If any of these are difficult for you, a friend or adviser can speak to us on your behalf. Most concerns or complaints will be sorted out quickly either by putting things right or by explaining the school's actions to you.

Try to go to the member of staff involved or your child's class teacher who will either deal with your issue or pass you on to someone who is more able to help.

Please remember the beginning or end of the school day can be a very busy time. If you talk to a teacher at these times, for practical reasons, it may not be possible to sort things out there and then. Be ready for the teacher to say she or he will see you or ring you as soon as possible. This is because we want to give your worries the attention they deserve. You should not be asked to wait more than a week and often she or he will discuss things with you much sooner. We hope this will be enough to put things right.

Sometimes the teacher will send you a brief note after the phone call or meeting with details of what we are doing about your concern. All staff will make every effort to resolve your problem promptly at this informal stage.

Making a complaint

If you have already told us about a concern but are not satisfied with how we have responded, you may wish to make a complaint.

We have a complaints procedure to make sure we respond to complaints in the best possible way. Our aim is to resolve complaints as quickly and as effectively as possible.

The complaints procedure will tell you exactly what will happen and how long it should all take. If you want to look at it before speaking to us a copy is available on the schools website alternatively please contact the School Office who will be happy to give you a paper copy.

The procedure has three stages. We have time limits in our complaints procedure to make sure that complaints are dealt with as quickly as possible.

At Stage 1, we would like you to put your complaint in writing to the Headteacher. You should make clear you wish the matter to be dealt with as a complaint.

If your concern involves the Headteacher, you may wish to put your complaint to the Chair of Governors.

We hope very much that your complaint will be resolved at Stage 1. At the end of Stage 1 if you are still not satisfied, you can complain formally to the Chair of Governors. Please try to do this not more than 10 school days after getting a written response to your complaint. If we have not heard from you by then, we will assume that you do not want to take things any further.

At Stage 2 the Chair of Governors will fully investigate if necessary and arrange to discuss your complaint with you, and then send you a letter with an explanation or the actions the school will take to put things right.

Generally complaints are sorted out at Stage 1 or Stage 2, but occasionally parents still feel dissatisfied and if so have a right to explain their case to a panel of three governors.

If you are not happy with the Chair of Governors' response to your complaint, please let us know not more than 10 school days after getting a written response to your complaint. If we have not heard from you by then, we will assume that you do not want to take things any further.

At Stage 3 you will be invited to the governors' appeal hearing, which will be normally be organised not more than 15 days after receipt of your complaint and at a time which is suitable for you, the Headteacher and the panel of governors. You will be invited to speak to the panel and can be accompanied by a friend or representative. After the meeting you will be advised of the outcome in writing within 10 school days.

Normally, the decision of the governors is the last step in the procedure.

We keep copies of all correspondence about concerns and complaints. These will be treated with the utmost confidence. You and your child have a legal right to have a copy of your child's school records.

All complaints are reported to the school's governing body to enable the school to learn from them. Generally names will not be given.

Other complaints

There is a specific procedure for complaints about the school curriculum and matters relating to it, including
